Main Library (Closed March 1-April 14) 5 Monument Square 871-1700

- The Main Library will close Monday, March 1 and reopen Thursday, April 15. PPL's 5 neighborhood branches will remain open with their regular schedules (see center section- Munjoy Branch hours changed February 23).
- During this time when the Main Library is closed, items checked out from the Main Library collection will be due no earlier than Thursday, April 22.
- Please feel free to return items to the Main Library bookdrop on Elm St while we are closed. We will still check-in items Mondays-Fridays.
- If an item you have on hold becomes available during the closed period and you had requested to pick it up at the Main Library, we will contact you for an alternate pick-up location.
- You may still renew your materials by calling one of the other PPL branches during their open hours. You may also renew automatically via our website (www.portlandlibrary.com -- click on Renew Now!) or via our 24-hour Telephone Renewal Service (871-1734 or 871-1762) if the items are not on hold for another patron, and you owe less than $10 in fees.
- During the closed period, materials that are moving to/around the Main Library will not be available in the catalog. All collections will become available again on Thursday, April 15.
- Interlibrary loan requests for available materials will continue to be processed during this period, although you will need to choose a pickup location other than the Main Library.
- For any other questions related to your library account, you may also send email to lending@portland.lib.me.us (please include your library card barcode number), or contact a PPL branch location during their open hours.
