

Enriching Our Community, Expanding Our World.

BROWN BAG LECTURE SERIES

ALLEN WELLS

author of

TROPICAL ZION: General Trujillo, FDR, and the Jews of Sosua

This illuminating and irony-laden study deftly integrates twentieth-century Latin American, Jewish, and American history with that of the Holocaust. Readers interested in any of these fields will be rewarded and have their perspectives widened. An admirably researched and crafted book, and a touching one, too.”

—PETER HAYES, THEODORE ZEV WEISS PROFESSOR OF HOLOCAUST STUDIES, NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

Wednesday, May 20th, 12:00pm–1:00pm

Community Television Network

516 Congress Street, Portland

(During the renovation of the Main Library, Brown Bag Lectures will be held at Community Television Network, just a few blocks from the Main Library)

Bring your lunch • Light refreshments served • Free and open to the public

Books available through

Longfellow Books

Coffee donated by

Coffee By Design
Handcrafted Coffee
A Maine Coffee Company and Micro Roastery